

Deliberative workshops

Will show you the things your residents regard as a 'must have' and those things they are prepared to 'trade off' when making difficult decisions such as balancing the need for cuts in service provision / raises in council tax payments